

U.S. Exchange Opportunities for Czech Students!

Would you like to study in the U.S. or do a short-term leadership program in the U.S.? Check out these fully funded opportunities for Czech secondary students.

FLEX (Future Leaders Exchange Program) – High school students aged 14–17 spend a full school year at a U.S. high school and live with a host family.

Applications: September

- Benjamin Franklin Transatlantic Fellowship – Four-week summer exchange program in the U.S. for students aged 16–18. Participants will explore transatlantic relations, leadership development, critical thinking, diplomacy, community activism, and the media.
Applications: March

- Women2Women – 10-day leadership program in the U.S. each summer for girls aged 15–19.

Applications: April/May

- EducationUSA – Advising center of the Fulbright Commission, providing free information and counseling about opportunities to study at accredited postsecondary institutions in the U.S.

More information: <https://cz.usembassy.gov/>

Contact: Kristýna Šejnohová, sejnohovak@state.gov

